- can God, in your times manifest Himself to man through a ray of divine Light and that man can perceive it through grace?

God is anointing His own to bring them to how is it that when You, my God, *the people of God the mind of man, the earth is not put ablaze?

God comes in Splendour and Glory to us, inundated with His Own Light, and looks at us, afire with majesty, with a train of His Archangels, He descends in this glorious manner,
- a formidable sight, to address us;

no sooner than He opens His Mouth then a ray of dazzling Light brightens even more His Holy Face; then He reaches out to us with flames of passion to remind us of the power that He yields by giving us The Inheritance, while calling us all to attain perfection in an ineffable union with the Divine; yet, O ineffable Beauty, Royal Dignity, the sound of the unfaithful who are buried in darkness is piercing my ears!

yet in spite of their unfaithfulness, My gaze of Mercy is fixed on them; yes, have mercy for those who offend you, and are clinging to vanity and its kind, for they are deeply embedded in the deepest pit;

'unfaithful lot! you have blasphemed the Will of God and your spiritual fruit is Chaos!

come and summarise your life-span and see what lies ahead of you: Putrefaction of the soul and total Death ... Sin is Death!... '

I have penned Your Words Lord, for nineteen years now;

You have my God entrusted me, knowing my wretchedness, with this Noble Ode of Love, this Ode of Resurrection, and since then I have been almost swallowed alive by our tormentors, I have been traduced and reviled without a cause; but I have granted you protection and rewarded you with blessings... let psalms and canticles mingle for Me, give Me cause to ravish My Heart; a little thing like this is a sweetly scented sacrifice...

I had, in the past, felt somewhat Your Judgment when I had scorned, before I met You and Your Law; yet, You came to me, out of pity and lifted me...

You breathed in me and You made me whole; O Compassionate God! open the eyes of Your people; they are great in numbers who do not see... should mountains topple to mingle with waves, should rocks melt like wax before My Face, to those who fear Me, I would still be merciful...

Lord, to see You is indeed a formidable sight; majestic in beauty, Your Name, transcends earth and heaven and has the sound of a Lyric in my ears; I bless You who are my Counsellor, while in my sleep You are my Plea;

Your Word flashes far and wide upon the earth and wherever it reaches It raises the dead;

Your Sovereignty is an eternal Sovereignty;

a thousand gems formed Your mantle the clouds; like a Bridegroom who descends delicately a staircase, You stepped forward, and with open arms You spoke to me:

I have acquitted you; now you will be My pupil under My instructions and I will teach you the way to go ...

you will sing a new song in My honour to thwart the evil plans of My enemies who harm My Church; never fear, even if you hear no speech or sound from Me; I am always with you...

on Your cherub and fly to You my God, soaring on the wings of the wind* to hear the Voice of my God and raise the veil of the Bridegroom and contemplate on His Sweetness and His Divinity; for Your Love will be before my eyes...

my heart: 'how much longer will He hide His Face from you? for how long will He keep you waiting towards His Courts in which I receive Instruction and Knowledge, and where other ascents are granted to me, reaching other heights, in greater Lights of Understanding, penetrating the impenetrable flames of Sublime Love; penetrating in the depths of Light Himself?' in there, my spirit, in awe, will contemplate the most Handsome, by far more handsome than all the angelic beauties put together;* in there, my God makes Himself Knowable to man; in God, the outside world disintegrates while His Kin integrates becoming the bone of His Bone, the flesh of His Flesh; the Royal Sceptre of Integrity...

That God's Light surpasses all other look and contemplate at the One who wounded my heart inwardly? You know Lord Jesus, that I have not sweated to study and learn theology, Knowledge or Holy Wisdom, I lacked in Wisdom that comes from You, I lacked in everything Holy, nor was I ever known to be virtuous, but rather the opposite, and yet in this deplorable state of mine, You carried me on Your Wings in order not to tire myself; You offered me boundless graces, to hear You, see You, converse with You; and together, Majesty, Counsellor and Lord of All, we soared the skies bringing me up in Your Celestial Courts, and in the spiritual life in You!

the upward path to life ; You are known to test the hearts , so I invite You to test my heart since I know I have not performed any saintly act ; I feel that I have not yet peeled off my faults but have the impression they grew larger ; and as for Your commandments , I have suspicions that I have broken several ones ; the path of life is to abide by discipline , and he who rejects discipline : poverty and disgrace is upon him ; - have I kept my promises to You ? have I fulfilled my vows at all ? I doubt this as well ; and yet , You are still with me , in spite of all my failures , Your Light is still embracing me , mesmerizing me with Your delightful Presence and by the way Your glance is upon me ; You give me the impression that no one counts for You , that there is no one left on earth but me and that I am Your only love - singled out !

Your love for man is total folly, Your profound benevolence to us who are besmeared in sin, is inexplicable;
How can anyone claim to understand fully Your goodness? It is as though they would want to grasp in their hand the mist, or the light which are not tangible...

In the beginning when You revealed my soul to me, the real me, as a not blame me, instead You were pleading for my friendship; You were trying to justify my awfulness saying:

*'"is it because there was no one
